

OVER TWO HALF DAYS

PRESENTED ONLINE

On-Demand
Recording
Available to Registrants

SEPT
3RD

0800-1130

SEPT
4TH

1300-1630

HEART CENTRE NURSING EDUCATION DAY

An Open and Shut Case: Solving the Mystery of Heart Valves

SEPT 3, 2020 MORNING

Q 0800-0805

Welcome and housekeeping

Ms. Rachel Milligan &
Ms. Kirsten Redman

Q 0920-0950

Coffee break

Break, networking and virtual interaction with sponsors

Q 0805-0810

Opening Remarks

Ms. Amanda Harvey, Program
Director - Heart & Lung
| ICU | Respiratory

Q 0950-1020

Investigating the Scene: Current Treatment Options for Aortic and Mitral Valve Disease

- Patient selection and indications for treatment options within the
Vancouver Transcatheter Heart
Valve Program

Ms. Leslie Achtem, Transcatheter
Valve Program Coordinator,
St. Paul's Hospital

Q 0815-0845

Key Note Address :
The Briefing: The History of Innovation in Valvular Interventions

Dr. John Webb, Director of Interventional Cardiology,
St. Paul's Hospital

Q 1025-1055

From Behind Closed Doors:
Following the Trail from the Operating Room to Home.

Ms. Tracy Gwozd, Nurse
Practitioner Cardiac Surgery,
St. Paul's Hospital

Q 0850-0920

The Post-Mortem: Learning from
Explanted Hearts

Dr. Stephanie Sellers, Director,
Fundamental Research,
Cardiovascular Imaging,
St. Paul's Hospital

Q 1100-1130

Virtual Networking and
Interaction with Sponsors

SEPT 4, 2020 AFTERNOON

Q 1300-1340

Probing the Evidence: An Investigation of Outcomes

Dr. Sandra Lauck,
Clinician-Scientist, UBC/St. Paul's Heart Centre

Q 1345-1415

Intriguing Cases: Pulmonic and Tricuspid Valve Interventions for Patients with Congenital Heart Disease

Ms. Karen LeComte,
Clinical Nurse Specialist,
Pacific Adult Congenital Heart Clinic

Q 1415-1445

Coffee break

Break, networking and virtual interaction with sponsors

Q 1445-1515

A Bitter Pill to Swallow: Pharmacologic Treatment of Valvular Heart Disease

Ms. Erica Wang
Clinical Pharmacy Specialist, St. Paul's Hospital

Q 1520-1600

Witness Testimony: Bringing the Patient's Voice to the Table

Moderator: Ms. Jackie Forman, Clinical Nurse Specialist Heart Rhythm and Transcatheter Heart Valve Programs

Q 1600-1630

Virtual Networking and Interaction with Sponsors

The Usual Suspects: Aortic, Mitral, Tricuspid and Pulmonic Valves

Ms. Patricia Johnson, Nurse Educator, CICU, St. Paul's Hospital

Presentation provided as optional pre-reading to registrants

Registration: <https://events.eply.com/HeartCentreEducationDay2020>

General admission $20

Undergraduate student admission $10

On-Demand Recording Available for Participants

All proceeds go to the Heart Centre Education Fund

#hcnursingday2020